Dakota Dunes Golf Links Golf Tournament

Monday, October 2
11:30 am to
7:00 pm

Fore!

Look out, delegates; CANDO is coming out swinging. This year's conference features an 18-hole golf tournament fundraiser for the National Indigenous Economic Education Foundation (NIEEF). Your support of this worthwhile cause is greatly appreciated. Bring a team or register as an individual and we'll put you on one. See you on the green!

Golfers will be competing for bragging rights in the following categories:

- ✓ longest drive, men and women
- ✓ longest putt, men and women
- ✓ closest to the pin, men and women
- ✓ first place team
- ✓ second place team
- ✓ third place team
- ✓ "most honest" team

Even if you can't tell a golf club from a hockey stick, you won't go home empty handed; every golfer receives a CANDO prize package just for coming out.

National Indigenous Economic Education

The National Indigenous Economic Education Foundation (NIEEF) is a formally registered charity with the Canada Customs and Revenue Agency. All proceeds from the golf tournament will be utilized for related education and training programs and projects in the following four areas:

- To provide scholarships to eligible recipients to further their education in the field of Aboriginal community economic development;
- To provide financial assistance for research projects that will lead to the development of Aboriginal economic development education materials for use in post-secondary institutions;
- To provide financial assistance to recipients to conduct community education on Aboriginal economic development initiatives through training workshops and seminars;
- To develop and offer seminars aimed at increasing awareness and creating a positive environment for Aboriginal economic development.

Golf Tournament Benefits

For the price of $125, you will receive:

- 18 holes of Texas Scramble golf fun;
- Transportation to and from the course on the classiest bus service Saskatoon has to offer;
- A golf cart so that you can save your energy for the rest of the events planned for the conference (club rentals also available);
- The chance to win some great prizes as donated by our cherished sponsors; and
- To finish the day off, a delicious BBQ meal at the course before we ship you back to the hotel.

So come out and join us, but register early; there are only 144 lucky delegates who will get to show off their skills.
