Please Select a Membership Type:

Full Membership

Open to individuals who function as economic development personnel within an Aboriginal community or organization. Full members enjoy all the benefits of CANDO membership and have full voting privileges at national and regional meetings. Subject to verification of eligibility.

$50 per year + GST*

Organization Membership

Open to companies, organizations, agencies, associations, and other groups that support CANDO's goals and objectives and are interested in keeping abreast of our activities. Corporate members do not have voting privileges but enjoy all other benefits of CANDO membership.

$250 per year + GST*

Associate Membership

Open to any individual who supports CANDO's goals and objectives and is interested in keeping abreast of our activities. Associate members do not have voting privileges but enjoy all other benefits of CANDO membership.

$35 per year + GST*

Student Membership

Open to full or part-time students currently enrolled in one of the following fields of study: Business Administration, Public Administration, Business Finance, Business Management, Natural Resources, CED and Human Resources.

Note: If an individual is a student as well as a practicing EDO, he/she can have the option of taking a Full Membership instead of a Student Membership, and consequently have voting rights.

Conversely: If a Student member would like to run for the CANDO Student Board position, he/she must provide proof in the form of a student card issued by their educational institution stating that they are enrolled in one of the qualified fields of study.

$25 per year + GST*
