

|   |   |
|---|---|
| Organization's Name              | Canadian Council for Aboriginal Business (CCAB)  |
| Vision                           | N/A   |
| Mission                          | CCAB's vision is the full participation of Aboriginal people in the Canadian economy. Our mission is to broker business relationships between the corporate sector and the Aboriginal community. We do that by providing the private sector with the resources it needs to engage Aboriginal people, businesses and communities. In the pursuit of this mission, CCAB is becoming the acknowledged expert and advocate for Aboriginal business and economic development.   |
| Mandate                          | The Canadian Council for Aboriginal Business (CCAB) is a national non-profit organization that provides tools and resources to access Aboriginal people as partners, employees, and customers. We promote the full participation of Aboriginal people and communities in Canada's economy.   |
| Key Activities/ Current Projects | Progressive Aboriginal Relations:Progressive Aboriginal Relations (PAR) is a program to help companies benchmark their work with Aboriginal people, businesses and communities. Find out more about PAR, how to get started, and meet the companies taking part. FAAY Scholarships:The Foundation for the Advancement of Aboriginal Youth is the scholarship and bursary program dedicated to developing the next generation of Aboriginal leaders. Find out more, apply for a scholarship or bursary, or become a sponsor. |

|                                   |   |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| Contact Name / Information | Telephone: 416-961-8663Fax: 416-961-3995E-mail: info@ccab.comCanadian Council for Aboriginal Business204A St. George St.Coach House, Main FloorToronto, ON M5R 2N5 |
|-----------------------------------|---|

|                 |   |
|-----------------|---|
| Web site | http://www.ccab.com/ |
|-----------------|---|