

Organization's Name	Canadian Executive Services Organization (CESO)
Vision	Canadian Executive Service Organization (CESO) is a not-for-profit organization that helps to build proud independent communities.
Mission	CESO's Mission is: To promote economic growth and governance of the Aboriginal and Non-Aboriginal peoples in Canada, developing nations and emerging market economies, through the transfer of knowledge by Volunteer Advisers. CESO's Core values are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Volunteerism; 2. Accountability; 3. Transferring skills to people in need; and 4. Respect.
Mandate	Canadian Executive Service Organization (CESO) is a not-for-profit organization that helps to build proud independent communities. Over 3,000 distinguished Volunteer Advisers (VAs) on the CESO roster share their professional experience by serving as mentors, advisers and trainers to our clients and partners at home and abroad. VAs, all seasoned experts in their respective fields, are posted in communities to promote development, build economic capacity and support sustainable businesses. Every year CESO completes approximately 1,500 assignments in collaboration with Canadian Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal and international clients. Through the collaborative effort of our volunteers, supporters and clients we help make economic development and sustainability a reality. Our Volunteer Advisers provide mentoring, training and advice to our

	clients to strengthen their economies and build more self-sufficient communities. Our individual and corporate donors alongside government funders finance CESO projects. CESO provides economic development expertise to Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal Canadians and clients in countries in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean, Central and South America and emerging market economies in Eastern Europe.
--	---

Key Activities/ Current Projects	National Services CESO works throughout Canada to build strong economies and strong communities. Volunteer Advisers contribute their valuable expertise to help communities in need to achieve greater self-sufficiency and growth. Our national programs reach out to Aboriginals, non-Aboriginals, youth and Nunavut. Contact Bob Dickson Vice-President, National Services 416-961-2376 ext. 238 bdickson@ceso-saco.com A highly professional and talented team of Regional Managers located in Dartmouth, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Vancouver, as well as an office in Ottawa dedicated to CESO At Home ensure that high quality service and programs are available to Canadians from coast to coast. CESO regional offices are supported by the National Operations centre. International Services CESO International Services is currently active in ten countries in Africa, Asia, the Americas and the Caribbean and in six new market economies of Eastern Europe. Since its inception in 1967, CESO has completed thousands of assignments worldwide. Our purpose is to improve the quality of life of others. Our goal is to develop the capacity of people in developing countries and emerging market economies, to manage and produce goods and services in both the public and private sectors.
--	---

--	---

Contact Name / Information	Contact: Paul van der Wel President & CEO 416-961-2376 Ext. 220 pvanderwel@ceso-saco.com Visit CESO's Web site to contact your nearest Operations Centre or the Regional Office in Canada at: www.ceso-saco.com/english/about/contact/map_canada/index.php
-----------------------------------	--

Web site	http://www.ceso-saco.com/english//index.php
-----------------	---