

Netmaker Coaching with Cando
Tuesdays 6 pm MT
Via Zoom Platform

Application Form

The Online Netmaker Coaching with Cando program is designed for First Nations, Metis, and Inuit Youth from across Canada within the age group of 17-35 years old. The course will promote to youth leadership skills, resiliency, and the confidence to reach their full potential. There is no registration fee.

Personal Information

First & Last Name	Address
City, Province, Postal Code	Community (if applicable)
Phone	Email
Birthday	Sex/Pronoun

Please check one: Metis Indigenous Inuit

Requirement: Essay must be submitted with the Application form. Application form will not be accepted without the essay.

Short Essay Submission:

500-1000 words describing why you are a suitable candidate. Include experience, awards, and accomplishments.

Only 40 applicants will be invited to participate - as selected by our organizing team.

It is not the first 40 applicants, but the 40 that best demonstrate how they are suitable to be a participant. Show us why we should choose you!

Virtual Platform:

Cando will be utilizing Zoom for the Netmaker Coaching with Cando program.

Please note you will require access to your own computer/laptop with built-in video or a connected video camera and a reliable internet connection in order to participate.

Registration cut-off deadline is December 3, 2021, AT 4:00 PM MT.

Cancellation Policy

If you are unable to attend this event, please provide us with any cancellations by January 7, 2022

Contact:

Elsie Moar; Special Projects Assistant

1-800-463-9300

P. (780) 990-0303

F. (780) 429-7487

E-mail: Elsie.Moar@edo.ca