

Harold Aljam

DIRECTOR-SOUTHERN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Harold Aljam is a member of Coldwater Indian Band. He is a dedicated, committed and an experienced leader with many years of involvement in the business and ranching communities, and has been a great asset to Community Futures Development Corporation of CIFN.

Professional Accomplishments:

- Served as Councilor and Chief positions for the Coldwater Indian Band for 28 years and during this time was the Band Administrator and Tribal Council Administrator.
- Holds a Board of Director position for Band Operations and Business Operations.
- Harold is the current Vice Chairperson of Board of Directors for Community Futures Development Corporation of Central Interior First Nations: a position he has maintained for the last 10 years. He has been a Director since organization's inception in 1990 and sits on its loans committee.

Presently Harold is the Coldwater Indian Band Economic Development Officer, a position he has maintained for the past three years. He is very involved with First Nations Agriculture and has inherited the family ranch (a commercial cow/calf business) which is still in operation after 29 years. He is married with two grown children.

CANDO DIRECTOR-SOURHTERN BRITISH COLUMBIA

E-mail: harold.aljam@gmail.com

Phone: (250) 378-6174