

Jeremy Neault

DIRECTOR-MANITOBA

Jeremy Neault is an Indigenous entrepreneur residing in Fisher River Cree Nation. He has over ten years of Business Administration in different fields such as economic development, retail, sales, management, and human resources. Currently, he owns & manages his own business called Neault Marketing Solutions since 2015, which offers website development / management, marketing and consulting services to Indigenous communities or organizations throughout Manitoba and Saskatchewan, including many economic development organizations. Jeremy is also an On-Reserve Trustee for the Fisher River Cree Nation Community Trust.

Jeremy's previous experience includes six years as a Board of Director for the Fisher River Economic Development Corporation, in which he was a part of the team that saw the development of Bay River Inn & Suites, Fisher River Grocery expansion and the Fisher River Car Wash & Laundromat. In addition, he also has two years' experience as a Retail Advisor for the Tribal Councils Investment Group of Manitoba in Winnipeg, Manager of the Peguis Multiplex Centre and various roles with Fisher River Grocery in his early years.

Jeremy is married to his loving wife Juanita, and they have three beautiful children, Meena, Emmy and Jameson; and he continues to work towards helping in the long-term future of our indigenous communities at all levels.
