

Women in Business Panel

2019 Women in Business Panelists

Each year Cando selects four panelists to form the Annual Women in Business Panel - one of the signature events at the Cando Annual National Conference which will be held in Whitecap Dakota, Saskatchewan in May 2022. Through this annual panel, Cando highlights and recognizes the significant impact that Indigenous women entrepreneurs have on the Canadian economy. Four panelists from across Canada will share their experiences of being a woman in business.

Note: Only nominations submitted by current Cando members will be considered
